PROGRESS AND PLANNING

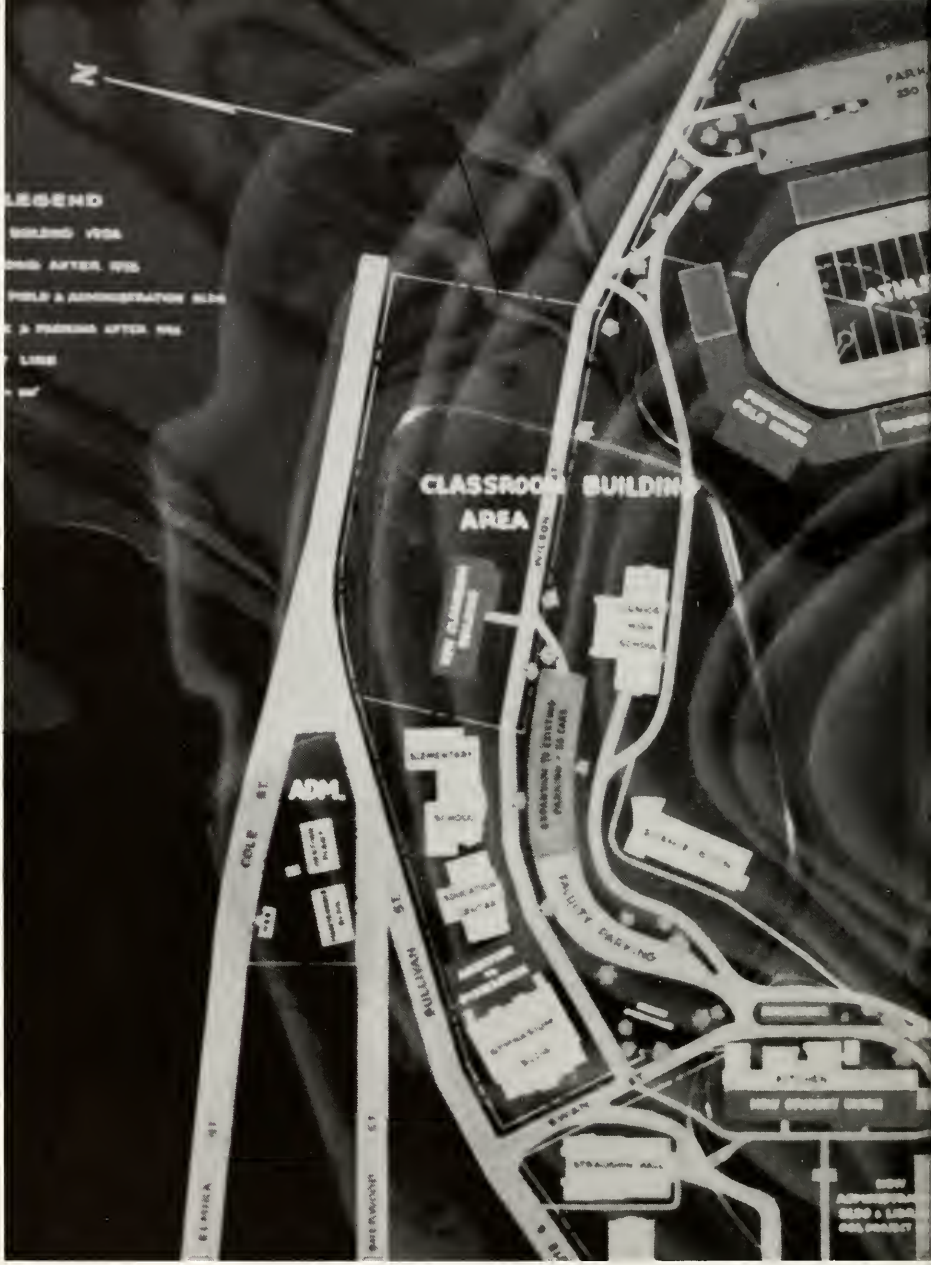
CARONTAWAN

1958



MANSFIELD STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

MANSFIELD, PENNSYLVANIA

FOREWORD

EXTERIOR PERSPECTIVE

Old Alumni Hall is being torn down this year. In its place will rise a new Library-Administration Building, marking the start of a long-range construction program for Mansfield State Teachers College.

The steady progress envisioned for the year ahead and the planning necessary to make this progress a reality keynote the theme for this first yearbook of the College's second century.

DEDICATION

We dedicate this 1958 CARONTAWAN to Progress and Planning for Mansfield State Teachers College in this, its second century.

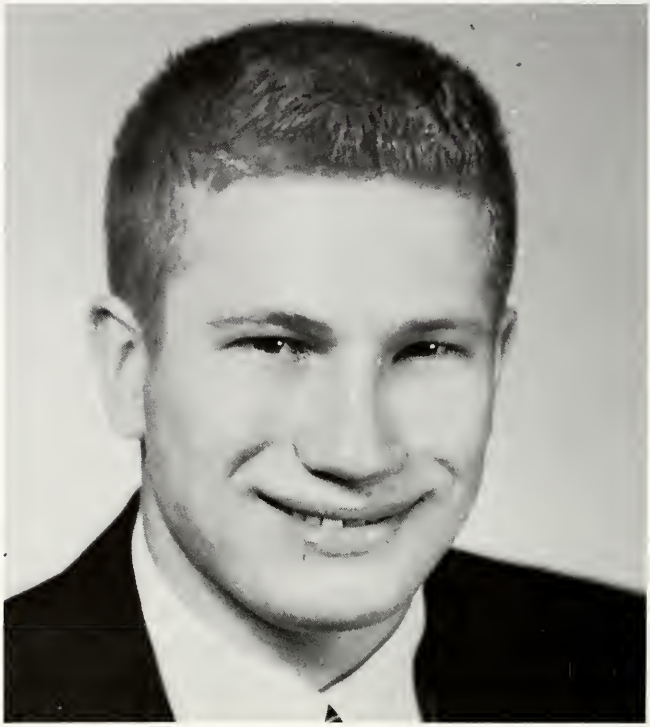
IN MEMORIAM



JAMES "JIM" ARTZ

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

ADMINISTRATION

OUR PRESIDENT

Dear Faculty and Students:

The choice of the theme, Progress and Planning, by the 1958 Carontawan Staff is an admirable one. The philosophical background of progress stems from the work of the French philosopher, Condorcet—"Esquisse d'un tableau des progres de l'esprit humain." It emerged from the French Revolution in swaddling clothes and grew to manhood in the nineteenth century. The idea of planning had its roots in the late nineteenth century but flowered into full bloom in the first fifty years of the twentieth century.

It is the application of these ideas to the development of Mansfield in the coming century which illustrates the aptness of our theme. The increasing tempo of the passage of time has tended to make us think in terms of decades whereas previously we thought in terms of years. It is with that concept in mind that I am impressing upon our staff the idea of thinking of the next ten years as the first step in the development of an improved and expanded college.

The plans for the physical development of Mansfield are prepared. They envision the new Library-Administration Building, the athletic field development, new dormitories, a new classroom building, a swimming pool, and a student union. But just as important will be the constant work so necessary to maintain and to improve the structures which have been added to our campus in more recent times.

When the class of 1958 returns in 1968 for their tenth reunion, I believe they will see a great many changes. In fact, I hope the class of 1958 will be an important factor in helping us bring about these changes. By continued interest in your college, by strong support as you go to all areas of the state, and by frequent visits to this well-spring from whence you have drawn and to which you have given inspiration, knowledge, and friendship, you can do much to help us.

Finally, let us remember that man does not live by bread alone. Although progress and planning in the physical sense is important, even more so is our intellectual and spiritual progress. The picture to your left shows the hills, the valleys, the very heavens with which a bountiful God has endowed Mansfield. From Him, and from His handiwork, we draw our basic strength and inspiration.

May we, at Mansfield, ever realize that our progress and planning can advance only through continued faith in God and emphasis on the philosophy that we were created, as individuals, in His image.

Sincerely,

Lewis W Rathgeber

FACULTY

Eat, drink and be merry!

"Lift that board, hoist that set!" Craig Andrews and Mr. Dickerson help College Players set up for "You Can't Take It With You."

Just talk for Miss Randall, Miss Lewis, Miss Farrer, and Miss Haxworth.

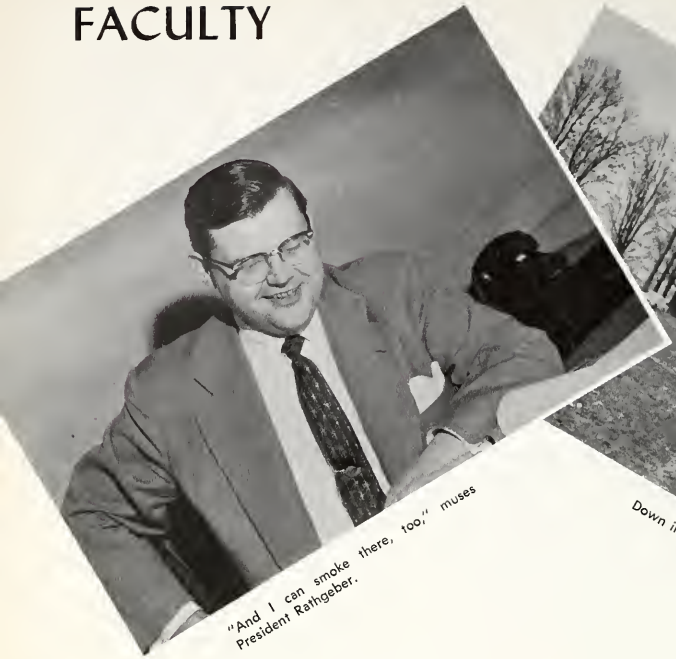
An impromptu meeting of executives.

"Hot Dog, John?" offers Mr. Bencetic.

Faculty members linger to chat after their meeting.

SNAPS

FACULTY SNAPS



"And I can smoke there, too," muses President Rathgeber.

Down in front, Mr. Decker!

Dr. Rathgeber, Mrs. Morales, Miss Brooks, Dr. Hunsicker, and Dr. Mutchler take time from their busy schedules to chat.

The pause that refreshes Dean and Mrs. Long.

FACULTY SNAPS

Mr. Kjelgaard and Mr. Foreman converse about Mansfield.

Mrs. Lutes leads the social circle.

Mr. Sundberg, Dr. Menge, Mr. Evans, and Miss Holcombe pose for the Carontawan photographer.

Mrs. Swanson is aided in the Book Room by Barb Wright.

Mr. Lloyd and Mr. Jarvis compare their final exams in Algebra.

Mr. Jones and Dr. Husted appear amused with what Miss Randall just said.

"The gym is that way, Dr. Swan," kids Mr. Decker.

FACULTY SNAPS

Miss Jackson, Miss Holcombe, Mr. Rosenfeld, and Mr. Folwer laugh over the latest "morbid joke" around campus.

Miss Habeger, Miss Stalford, Mrs. Palmer, Miss Kuster, and Miss Grigsby take time out from faculty meeting to have their pictures snapped.

Coach Gibson surveys the football team with the hope of finding the player he needs for the next play.

Deans Billings, Stelmack, Long, and Jackson take time out from a busy day to have an informal chat.

The faculty enjoy themselves at Phi Sigma Pi's annual Banquet.

Bob Saar plays host to Bobby Long, President Rathgeber, and Dean Long during South Hall's Christmas Open House.

FACULTY SNAPS

The male faculty stands alone . . . (Mr. Jarvis, Mr. Sundberg, Dr. Schappelle, Dr. Siebert, Dr. Mutchler).

And so do the women . . . (Miss Farrer, Miss Smith, Miss Snyder, Miss Wall, Mrs. Morales, Miss Keller, Miss Hoxworth).

But not for long. (Mr. Brown, Miss Randell, Mr. Jones, Dr. Husted).

CLASS OF 1958

For the 134 members of the Class of 1958, this is the last year at Mansfield State Teachers College. Mingled with the usual excitement and hard work is a mood of serious expectation as graduation approaches.

Several events during the past months have been especially noteworthy for the seniors. The class entered a float on Homecoming Day, and a senior was crowned queen. The seniors' presentation, "Around the World in Eighteen Days," won second prize in the Talent Show. With the Christmas season came the Grecian Sing and the traditional senior caroling. In April, the class sponsored its spring week end, climaxed by the Junior-Senior Ball.

The seniors have been very active this year in college activities. In both football and basketball, members of the class made important contributions. Several seniors have been prominent in women's sports. Informal musical groups, composed wholly or mainly of seniors, have also been outstanding.

On May 25, in Straughn Auditorium, Commencement will take place. Thus, for the Class of 1958, college life at Mansfield will come to a fitting close.

Class of 1959

The Junior Class has taken a major part in the many activities on campus and have made valuable contributions to college life.

The Talent Show, the "Frat Party," and the Junior-Senior Ball are outstanding illustrations of their participation in collegiate affairs.

At this year's All-College Talent Show, which was held on Parent Day, the juniors won first prize for their presentation of the "News of the World." This prize was an honor for which they had been striving since they first came to Mansfield.

For the Junior Weekend, the class sponsored a "Frat Party" to which all the students at the college were invited. The scene of this informal get-together was the lobby of the gymnasium.

On the night of April 12, the Junior-Senior Ball was held in a beautifully decorated gymnasium. This event was one of the high points of the year.

The juniors also made their influence felt in college athletics. One of the co-captains of this year's football team was a member of the class. Juniors were represented on the college's basketball and baseball teams. Five members of the football cheerleading squad and four of the basketball cheerleaders were juniors.

There are 145 students in this class. They have participated extensively in the work of various college organizations, and many have made distinguished academic records in their respective departments.

CLASS OF 1960

The past year has seen the members of the Class of 1960 rise to the status of upperclassmen. With this new status has come a more active role in Mansfield's student life for the approximately 170 sophomores.

The busy year for the Sophomore Class began with the Freshman Initiation early in the fall. In October, the sophomore float received honorable mention in the Homecoming Day Parade. On Parents' Day, the class placed third in the Talent Show with "Hut a la Paris." The top event of the year was the Freshman-Sophomore Dance in November, based on the theme, "Mediterranean Magic."

The Sophomore Class has contributed a number of able players to Mansfield's athletic program, and two sophomores were on the cheerleading squad. Members of the class have taken an important part in many other campus activities.

CLASS OF 1961

The college's 205 freshmen had their first real taste of Mansfield life this year. Most of these students are from Pennsylvania, but each one brought to Mansfield a bit of the flavor of his own area.

After they had been instructed concerning the ways of the campus by the Sophomore Tribunal, the members of the Freshman Class set about proving themselves. The freshman float in the Homecoming Parade won honorable mention. The class scored a social success with the Freshman-Sophomore Ball in November. At the Talent Show on Parents' Day, the "hardships" of initiation were recreated. The Freshman Chorus performed during the year; the Ivys, a quartet, won first prize for the class in the Grecian Sing. At Mansfield's traditional May Day observance, a group of freshman girls served as May Dancers.

The contributions of the class to all departments, to campus organizations, and to athletics have been impressive.

DEPARTMENTS

SECONDARY

ROBERT SEELEY, Department Representative.

DR. CLARENCE MUTCHLER, Department Head

Secondary students do their share of studying, too. Don't they, Lew, Walt, Pat, and Sheldon?

Mr. Beyer, Dr. Schappelle, Dr. Seibert, Mr. Natoli, and Mr. Rosenfeld, instructors, help with registration.

The Secondary Department, with an enrollment this year of about three hundred students, is the largest of the four major departments at Mansfield State Teachers College.

The major purpose of the Secondary Department is to prepare teachers for the junior and senior high schools. The department strives, therefore, to develop in each of its students the attitudes and skills that he will need in the teaching profession.

During his four years at Mansfield, every secondary student is required to take a number of professional courses in education. In addition, he must observe several classes in the Campus Schools prior to his student teaching.

Beginning this year, each senior in this department is devoting one full semester to teaching in the Campus Junior High School. During that time, he conducts classes under supervision, and gains experience through participation in the lunch hour and homeroom activities.

In addition to giving its students the practical training needed for public school teaching, the Secondary Department provides them with the opportunity to broaden their academic knowledge.

Certain general courses are required of all secondary students. In addition, each student takes specialized courses in his major or minor field, which he selects according to his interests and abilities.

The head of the Secondary Department is Dr. Clarence R. Mutchler. Over thirty instructors are associated with the department, but many also teach classes in other departments. Robert L. Seelye, a member of the Senior Class, represents the secondary students on the Student Council.

Miss Light, Mr. Rosenfeld, Dr. Swan, and Miss Holcombe, all members of the English Department, discuss the latest problems in teaching freshman English and Speech.

Department Head

SHIRLEY CARTER, Department Representative

Aw, come on, a bigger smile that that, Ninita, Marilyn, Janice and Louise.

Barb, Evelyn, Mary Lee, and Joyce take time out from studies to relax (or entertain).

The Elementary Department prepares teachers for the public schools from kindergarten up through grade six. Students receive not only a broad background in general education but also the professional experience required for understanding the growth and behavior of children and for guiding them in learning.

Excellent facilities for the training of elementary school teachers are found at Mansfield. There is a modern school building which provides classrooms for fifteen groups of pupils, a library, art room, music room, shop, visual education room, and gymnasium. Adjacent to these rooms are observation booths with one-way screens from which one can observe the work going on without disturbing the children. Each of the supervisors in the Elementary School has a minimum of five years of public school experience and a master's degree in education.

The students in this department are required to participate in the Elementary School's activities. Students begin their experiences during the freshman year and continue throughout the four years of preparation. These experiences include both observation of classes and actual work with children in the classroom, on the playground, during the lunch hour, and in physical education classes. The program is climaxed in the senior year with one full semester of student teaching.

Dr. Clarence L. Hunsicker is the Director of Elementary Education. There are seventeen elementary faculty members, serving approximately 160 students enrolled in the curriculum. Shirley Carter, a senior, is the department's Student Council representative.

HOME ECONOMICS

MRS. ELIZABETH MORALES, Department Head

PHYLLIS EVANS, Representative of the Department

Nancy Miller displays her training in home furnishings.

Off to class go Jan, Mary, Bets, and Shirl.

One hundred twenty-one students are enrolled in the Home Economics curriculum at Mansfield State Teachers College. Mrs. Elizabeth B. Morales heads the department, which has a faculty of seven members. Phyllis Evans represents the department on the Student Council. Students of home economics not only learn the basic fundamentals of that subject, such as cooking and sewing, but become acquainted with the fine arts associated with the home.

Introductory courses in art, music, history, English and science furnish the background for a well-rounded education. Specific fields included in this curriculum are foods and nutrition, sewing, tailoring and flat pattern making, child development, family relations, first aid and home care of the sick, chemistry, bacteriology, equipment courses, and professional practicum.

Prospective home economics teachers do their practice teaching in the Campus Junior High School during their junior year and in an off-campus school during their senior year. Related commercial and home projects are completed during the summer vacation. This enables students to put into practice the knowledge gained during the school year. Six weeks in the Home Management Apartment during the senior year presents an opportunity for the utilization of four years of vocational training.

The aim of the home economics department is to train vocational home economics teachers, and to educate young women in the home arts, and to develop a greater appreciation of home living.

MUSIC

MARJORIE BROOKS, Department Head

GERALD McCLURE, Representative of the Department

Hi, frosh!

Opera Workshop rehearses for Amahl.

The Music Department occupies a prominent position at Mansfield State Teachers College. The many activities which music students provide or in which they participate—including assembly programs, band and orchestra concerts, vesper services, recitals, parades, well sings, and jam sessions—are evidence of the vital role which this department plays in campus life.

The basic purpose of the Music Department is to educate teachers of music for the schools. In addition to the general college courses taken by students in all departments, the music students are given instruction and practice in such areas of music as solfeggio, harmony, conducting, and orchestration. Valuable experience is provided through individual and class instrumental instruction and participation in various musical groups.

Student teaching is easily integrated with other courses in the music curriculum. The junior music students observe the practice teaching of seniors in the department. This, along with various methods courses, prepares them for their own student teaching. As seniors, these students teach in primary, intermediate, and secondary music classes.

Frequent musical programs are presented at the college throughout the year by a number of groups associated with the Music Department. Included are the Community Orchestra, Concert Wind Ensemble, Marching Band, Advanced and Freshman Choruses, Opera Workshop, Brass and String Ensembles, Woodwind Quintet, Renaissance Singers, and the Esquires. Two professional music organizations, Lambda Mu and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, also give concerts during the year.

Fourteen faculty members, headed by Miss Marjorie Brooks, provide music instruction for the approximately one hundred students in the Music Department. Gerald McClure represents this department in the Student Council.

STUDENT

This has been the Student Council's first full year under its revised organization, introduced last spring. It has shown rapid progress in becoming a well-knit, functional group.

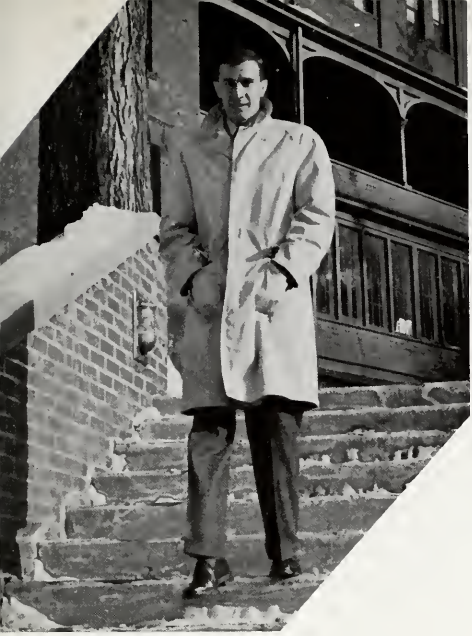
Among the added responsibilities which the Student Council has assumed has been the planning of a series of student projects. These include the new Cinemascope screen and projector, lights for night play on the tennis court, painting of the Student Center and the introduction of new recreational facilities there, and an additional Christmas display.

With the Council's added resources through the raising of the Student Activities Fee, more and better facilities will become available to the students. The Student Council will initiate and supervise the setting up of various facilities; however, only the cooperation of the entire student body can bring them to full realization.

President Rathgeber has given the Council a major role in the control of student activity. It is the duty of student leaders to use this control wisely, so that they will not abuse the trust which the president has placed in them.

Representatives on the Student Council are just that—representatives. They try to reflect the views of the people whom they represent. However, they can do this with justification only if they are informed of student opinions. They can be informed only if each student at Mansfield takes an active interest in student government.

ROBERT KEENAN



Student Council President
BOB KEENAN

The Student Council is the governing body of the Mansfield Student Government Association. Every student at the college belongs to this association and is directly represented on the sixteen-member Council.

The Student Council tries at all times to maintain close cooperation between the students and the administration and to give an accurate representation of student views. Specific functions of the Council include the planning of the extracurricular program and the approval of dates for college meetings. In recent months, the Council has organized a number of student projects which have already brought an improvement in recreational facilities.

The past year has been especially noteworthy for the Student Council. It has been the first full year in which the four departments of the college have been represented on the Council. The student body approved an increase in the Student Activities Fee, thus providing greater funds for various campus programs.

Any student may attend one of the regular meetings of the Council, which are held twice each month.

The 182 men students living in South Hall are automatically members of the Men's Dormitory Association. The purpose of this organization is to regulate student life in the dormitory in the interest of good living and studying conditions.

Activities of the Men's Dormitory Association include participation in the Grecian Sing, Open House in South Hall, one weekend in each semester, and the entering of a float for Homecoming Day.

This organization has many contacts with individual students in trying to promote self-control and consideration for the rights of others. The integration of all men students into the group is another objective of the Men's Dormitory Association.

To administer student life in North Hall so that all may live comfortably and with consideration for others; to develop individual and group responsibility; and to promote conditions conducive to courtesy, self-control, and higher standards of work: these are the purposes of the Women's Dormitory Council.

This ten-member council makes and enforces the rules and regulations for the women of North Hall. It governs the Women's Dormitory Association, to which all students living in this building belong.

Many special activities have been sponsored by the association during the year. These have included the preparation of a float for the Homecoming Day parade. decoration of the wells for the Christmas festivities, the sponsoring of open house in North Hall, a weekend, and a number of well parties.

Seated: Janice Brennan, Joan Wilson, Walt Sears, Susan Sundberg, Jane Brooks. Standing: Jane Hess, Sam McInroy, Robert Johnson, Thomas McIntosh, Fred Smith, Robert Precit, Linda Seymour.

DAY STUDENTS EXECUTIVE BOARD

Approximately 270 students who are residents of neither dormitory are members of the Day Students' Club. This organization was formed to give the day students a definite voice in student government and to create good will between day and dormitory students.

The Day Students' Club sponsors a float, a weekend, and an annual spring picnic. A highlight of the activities this year was the opening of a new day student room in the Student Center.

The Day Student Executive Board holds meetings twice a month and is instrumental in securing better facilities for the day students and for initiating the groups' social functions.

The policies and activities of the Student Union ("The Hut") are regulated by the Student Union Council. The work of this council is directed toward maximum comfort and convenience in what has become one of the favorite gathering places for Mansfield students.

At the meetings of the council, receipts and expenditures for the Student Union are checked and the general financial status is examined. Suggestions for improvements, originating both within and outside the council, are evaluated.

A number of improvements are definitely being planned for the Student Union. New items which have been requested by the students will be sold. Plaques and banners are to be placed for better appearance. In order to give added room to "The Hut," a portion of the west wall may soon be removed and the porch in front of it enclosed.

The Lambda Upsilon Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega is a national honorary dramatic fraternity with membership limited to those who have been especially active in the work of College Players. In order to join this organization, one must earn a certain number of points and then present a Shakespearean recitation before members of College Players.

Alpha Psi Omega presents the "Players" Christmas assembly each year. The 1957 play, entitled "The Flight," was written especially for the assembly by Tony Chiarilli.

The stimulation of higher ideals in the field of drama and stage production and the recognition of talent and interest are among the purposes of the organization. Certificates are awarded to the senior members of Alpha Psi Omega in the Awards Assembly each May.

GAMMA THETA UPSILON

Gamma Theta Upsilon, a national honorary geography fraternity, seeks to recognize ability and accomplishment in the field of geography and to promote geographical education. This organization, the youngest of the three fraternities on the campus, was established at Mansfield State Teachers College two years ago.

The monthly meetings of Gamma Theta Upsilon consist of lectures by professional men in geography, motion pictures, and special geographical projects. In April, the organization joins forces with the Geography Club for its spring banquet. The Interfraternity Dance, also held in the spring, is another important occasion for Gamma Theta Upsilon.

Students at Mansfield with a major or minor in geography are eligible for membership in this fraternity if they have a scholastic average of 1.5 and have completed at least six semester hours in geography.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Dr. Bone, Advisor; Lenora Saxton, Corresponding Secretary; George Beyer, Treasurer; Ellen Weigle, Recording Secretary; Richard Harrington, President.

Kappa Delta Pi is a national honor society in education. This organization, whose Beta Rho Chapter is located on the Mansfield campus, aims to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards in education and to recognize outstanding contributions in this field.

The Beta Rho Chapter invites to membership juniors with six and seniors with twelve semester hours of education who have attained high scholastic standing and have shown outstanding personal qualities and worthy educational ideals. Forty-eight students and ten faculty members at Mansfield have belonged to the society in an active status this year.

The many activities of Kappa Delta Pi serve to maintain professional fellowship among its members and to stimulate professional growth. Varied programs relating to education are featured at the regular monthly meetings. In midwinter, the organization presents an assembly in Straughn Hall. The climax of the year comes at the annual spring banquet, where the member of Kappa Delta Pi who has achieved the highest cumulative point average is honored with the Beta Rho Scholarship Award.

KAPPA OMICRON PHI

Kappa Omicron Phi is a national, honorary home economics fraternity. Mrs. Elizabeth Morales is advisor of the Mansfield's chapter, which is termed Alpha Beta.

To become members of this organization, home economics majors must rank in the upper fifth of their curriculum, and their over-all scholastic average must be above that of the school. They must also obtain eight semester hours of home economics. There are, at present, twenty members.

Monthly meetings are held during the year; one of these meetings is devoted to a welfare project in the community. A candlelight luncheon in December celebrates the observance of Founder's Day.

The aims of Kappa Omicron Phi are to further the interest of home economics in four-year colleges; to stimulate intellectual, cultural, spiritual, and professional growth; and to develop women with higher ideals and a deeper appreciation of the American home.

Phi Sigma Pi is a national honorary fraternity for men in teacher training institutions. Membership in the fraternity recognizes high scholarship. Its personnel is limited to men of superior scholastic, professional, and social training, who have spent at least one year at the college.

The fraternity plays a unique part in helping to prepare efficient teachers, to advance educational ideals, and to meet the needs of close fellowship among men of similar interests.

Phi Sigma Pi is the oldest fraternity on campus and is lead by Duane Fiocca, president, and Mr. Albert Sundberg, advisor.

Lambda Mu is the honorary music sorority on campus. To be eligible for membership a woman must be either a second semester sophomore or an upperclassman who has attained outstanding academic and musical accomplishments. Initiation is held semi-annually.

To foster music and musical interests, to offer opportunity and encouragement for individual development of talent and interest in music, and to maintain high scholastic and professional standards are the purposes of Lambda Mu.

It has an increase in membership of approximately four times that which it had when Miss Marjorie Brooks, present head of the Music Department, founded it twenty-six years ago.

The present club room and meeting place of Lambda Mu is on the sixth floor of North Hall.

SIGMA ZETA

The national honor society for science and mathematics in Mansfield is Sigma Zeta. It is open to juniors and seniors who have attained high scholastic and professional standards and to freshmen and sophomores who show promise of development in their work.

Dr. Schappelle and Mr. Jarvis, the advisors of Sigma Zeta, aid the many members on their special projects and events held throughout the year. Meetings, field trips, and other activities make membership in this organization a worthwhile experience.

All majors in science and mathematics seek the honor of being a member of this organization.

Fourteen seniors from Mansfield State Teachers College were chosen for membership in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for the academic year 1957-1958. They were selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, participation in extracurricular activities, citizenship, service to the school, and promise of future usefulness to one's profession and to society.

Students are chosen to Who's Who every year by a committee consisting of the president of the college, dean of instruction, deans of students, department heads, and sophomore and junior members of the Student Council.

Approximately 675 colleges and universities in the United States are represented in Who's Who. The number of students selected from each school is specified by the publication according to the size of the school.

Membership in Who's Who is considered one of the highest honors that can be attained by a student at Mansfield State Teachers College.

Pete, Carl, Lois and Lee work on the 1958 yearbook.

Carontawan delegates to the Columbia University Yearbook Conference take a moment to relax between sessions.

This 1958 CARONTAWAN, which has been prepared by a staff of forty-five members, is the first yearbook of a new century for Mansfield State Teachers College. The aim of this CARONTAWAN is twofold: first, to provide a permanent record of the personalities and activities at Mansfield over the past year, and second, to give an idea of the progress and planning envisioned for the years ahead.

The exacting task of producing a yearbook forms the greater part of CARONTAWAN staff activity. Toward the end of the year, however, the CARONTAWAN sponsors a college week-end, during which the new yearbooks are distributed. For the members of the staff, an annual banquet is held.

The only requirement for membership on the CARONTAWAN is the ability to put one's time and ideas into the preparation of the yearbook. This year's staff hopes that its efforts have produced a book truly representative of this college at the start of its second century.

LASHLIGHT

Every month during the school year, THE FLASHLIGHT is published as the student newspaper of Mansfield State Teachers College. In addition to keeping its readers informed on the many aspects of college life, this publication serves as a forum for student opinon and enables those with special literary ability to have their writing brought before the students.

The past year was an important one for THE FLASHLIGHT. Not only was the size of each issue expanded to eight pages, but subscriptions were increased over 150 per cent and national advertising was introduced.

This year's junior assistant editor was elected to the Executive Board of the Teachers College Division of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Five delegates represented THE FLASHLIGHT at the conference in March.

In order to join the staff of THE FLASHLIGHT, a student either must have had previous experience in journalism or must show promise in this field. Over sixty students, serving in various writing and non-writing capacities, are members of the staff this year.

A.C.E.

The Association for Childhood Education is an organization with membership open to the faculty and students of the Elementary Department.

The main ideals of the organization are to encourage the professional growth of teachers and leaders in the elementary field and to promote the education and well-being of all children. The monthly meetings help develop good fellowship among the members and help them to become better teachers. The meetings are often highlighted by educational movies, panels, and guest speakers.

ART CLUB

Mr. Stephen Bencetic, Advisor; Paul Donowick, Vice President; Robert Petrowski, President; Carole Fitch, Secretary; Jean Francis, Treasurer.

The Art Club is an honorary organization for those students who have attained an "A" in one semester of art, and for those students who are interested in upholding the standards and purposes of the club. They may be sponsored by another member as an associate. The Art Club is affiliated with the Eastern Arts Association, an active national organization. It is from this association that many new ideas are conceived and incorporated into club meetings.

The Art Club is an active organization with a large membership. The decorations for the campus are under the supervision of the Art Club for the Christmas festivities and the May Day ceremonies. Each year the club sponsors a Valentine Dance to which every student is invited.

COLLEGE PLAYERS

College Players with sixty-nine students belonging, is one of the most active organizations on the Mansfield Campus this year. The membership includes both active members and back-stage members.

Students with special-acting ability are selected on the basis of tryouts before a committee drawn from the organization. Those interested in costuming, makeup, or staging may make application by letter, stating their qualifications and interest.

Recognizing the importance of all phases of stage production, College Players endeavors to stimulate an interest in drama and to promote friendship and cooperation among its members. Two plays are presented each year, usually a light comedy and a serious drama. The nights on which these plays are presented, are always two of the high points of the college year.

Through its various activities, the Geography Club aims to promote an interest in geography and a recognition of its importance among the student body.

Meetings of the Geography Club are held each month and have featured the presentation of films and lectures on geography and the conducting of debates. It was through the efforts of this organization that Gamma Theta Upsilon became one of the three men's professional fraternities at Mansfield.

In the Geography Club are two types of membership, active and associate. Active membership is open to those who have either a major or minor in geography and have completed a beginning course in the field. Students majoring in other fields are eligible for associate membership if they have completed one course in geography with at least a "B" grade and have attained a cumulative average of at least 1.5.

This year, there are approximately twenty-five active members in the club.

GEOGRAPHY CLUB

DIXIE CUPS

Trombone, trumpet, clarinet, piano, bass viole, and drums are vital instruments in the creation of music by the Dixie Cups. It is their Dixieland style instrumentation that gives the six-member ensemble its name.

Although they are a new group at the college, the Dixie Cups have been heard on numerous occasions this year. They have played for the jam sessions in the "Hut" and for several of the college dances. The Dixie Cups have also visited other campuses. They have given jazz concerts at Lock Haven State Teachers College and at Elmira College.

THE ESQUIRES

The Esquires, the College's dance orchestra, is in its second year as a recognized campus organization. This group has added much to Mansfield's already varied musical program.

This sixteen-piece orchestra plays at dances both on and off the campus. The Thanksgiving, Christmas, and May Day Dances are included among their annual engagements.

The members of the Esquires are a select group of players with outstanding ability and knowledge of sectional performance in the jazz idiom. They may come from any of the four college departments. Because of the keenness of student competition, membership is determined through supervised public auditioning.

This organization tries to stimulate greater appreciation of modern music. The special musical techniques employed by the orchestra help to make it an enjoyable part of the campus scene.

Larry Biddle, Historian; Don Sabol, Secretary; Jon Peterson, President; Joe Murphy, Treasurer; Vince Siracuse, Vice President.

"M" CLUB

The "M" Club is one of the leading organizations on the Mansfield campus. Members of this group are men who have earned a varsity letter in one or more intercollegiate sports. At present, there are thirty-eight active members in the "M" Club.

In the course of its activities, the "M" Club strives to encourage high standards of personal conduct, to foster good sportsmanship, and to maintain friendly athletic relationships with other educational institutions.

The biggest event on the organization's calendar is the annual "M" Club Dance, held during Homecoming Week-end. On this occasion, the new Homecoming Queen is presented with an autographed football on behalf of the "M" Club. Funds that are raised by the dance and by the sale of football programs are used to provide each new member with an "M" Club jacket. A year filled with activity is climaxed with an annual banquet for all members.

MUSIC EDUCATION CLUB

The Music Education Club strives to help students to receive a better understanding of the principles of music education and to augment the formal instruction provided in the curriculum. All students and faculty members at Mansfield are eligible for membership; over seventy persons belong to the organization this year. Interest in the music education field is the prime requirement.

Student members of the Music Education Club are given the opportunity for co-operative efforts through the activities of the organization. Contacts are promoted between the members and educators in the music field through the club's affiliation with Music Educator's National Conference.

Meetings are held once a month, and each meeting features some highlight of interest such as a faculty recital, guest speaker, or workshop.

NEWMAN CLUB

Magdalene Billow, Recording Secretary; Donald Sabol, President; Patricia McManigle, Corresponding Secretary. Standing: Lewis Caffo, Vice President; Michael Fleming, Treasurer.

Fostering the spiritual, intellectual, and social interests of the Catholic students is the purpose of the Newman Club. Catholic culture and fellowship are emphasized. Membership in the Newman Club is open to all Catholic students attending Mansfield State Teachers College. The present membership is approximately one hundred.

The Mansfield Newman Club is a member of the National Newman Club Federation and the Middle Atlantic Province. Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month.

The club's name is derived from its patron, John Henry Cardinal Newman, a nineteenth century English scholar and theologian.

Communion breakfasts in the fall and spring, spiritual talks by the clergy and laity, panel discussions, social events, a choir, and a Homecoming float are some of the organization's activities. This year at Christmas time, members of the club sold ribbon candy in a fund raising project.

Omicron Gamma Pi, affiliated with the National American Home Economics Association, is open to all students enrolled in the Home Economics curriculum.

The 1957-58 theme for Omicron has been "Community Resources." Monthly meetings have featured speakers, movies, and other programs related to this subject. The Christmas meeting was devoted to a welfare project. In order to keep abreast of activities on the national home economics scene, delegates from the Mansfield organization attend all state and national workshops and conferences, bringing back ideas from other clubs that will enrich this group's programs.

Each year, Omicron sponsors a weekend on campus, presents a fashion show, and publishes a student directory. The fashion show gives the members an opportunity to share their class experiences with the student body.

The variety of activities offered by Omicron Gamma Pi are planned to give the members an extra incentive to develop their interests and skill as homemakers.

The Student Christian Association, an inter-denominational student organization, is founded on a belief in God and Christ. It has as its purpose the promotion of Christian fellowship among students and faculty and the creation of a greater insight into Christian living.

The S.C.A. has a membership of about seventy students this year. Meetings are held on Thursday evenings and feature guest speakers, motion pictures, and faculty and student panels.

Various special activities are conducted by the organization throughout the year, including the sponsorship of a weekend, Christmas caroling at the Blossburg Hospital, a visit from a foreign exchange student, and an annual picnic in the spring. Every year the S.C.A. awards a scholarship to a deserving student, regardless of his faith.

W.A.A.

The Women's Athletic Association is set up to provide greater advantages for recreation for the women students at Mansfield State Teachers College. Because all women enrolled at the college are eligible to join, the 230 member W.A.A. is the largest organization on campus.

An important part of the W.A.A.'s activities is the holding of tournaments in volleyball, tennis, basketball, table tennis, badminton, bowling, and softball. Bicycling, tobogganing, and golf also are part of the W.A.A. program.

By the acquisition of points through participation in intramural athletics, a girl may become entitled first to a blazer, then to an "M," and finally to a W.A.A. key. The senior girl who is judged most outstanding in the W.A.A. during her four years is chosen "Woman Athlete of the Year."

Meetings of the association take place once a month. A picnic is held in Smythe Park at the end of the year.

The Marching Band is made up of students from all departments of the college and is directed by Mr. Bertram Francis.

The band performs between halves for all the home football games and for all the pep rallies. They travel to some away games inspiring the team and pleasing their audiences.

The band plays a major part in the Homecoming Parade and the community Halloween Parade. They provided a special exhibition for Parents on Parents' Day when the football game was cancelled because of the flu epidemic.

When the football season is over, the playing members form a second concert band which gives one performance during the year.

Although the members of the band have varied interests, they share a common enthusiasm for music and a common desire to put their organization in the front rank of collegiate musical groups.

The band begins its half-time entertainment.

FOOTBALL

Mansfield's 1957 football team gave the college its best season in a number of years. Out of six games played, the Mountaineers won three and lost three. (Eight games were scheduled, but two were canceled because of the Asiatic flu epidemic.

Although Mansfield took a bad beating from Brockport in its first game of the season, the squad redeemed itself by defeating Kings College the following Saturday. Another severe loss was suffered to Bloomsburg in the Homecoming Day game. After a two-week layoff, the Mounts won two games in a row, first against Ithaca College and then against Millersville. Lock Haven beat Mansfield in the final game, but the Mounts played outstandingly well and succeeded in holding the undefeated Lock Haven team to 13 points.

As a team, Mansfield showed that it could provide keen competition. It was teamwork among all of the players that produced this year's memorable season, but each member of the team made his individual contribution.

The line on the 1957 team was made up of such outstanding men as Millard, Ayers, Corney, Cruse, Moore, Fleck, and Lehman. The ends, Leslie, Dunniger, and White, proved to be fine receivers. The center spot was capably filled by Allen and Scancella. The backs, Bills, Ceccoli, Klinger, Della Salla, Frontino, Kreig, and Biddle, also did an excellent job.

Several members of the team made exceedingly valuable contributions. Kreig, in the fullback spot, was a consistent ground gainer for the Mounts. Klinger and Biddle, halfbacks, also made good gains, particularly in the Millersville game in which Biddle scored both touchdowns. Millard, Ayers, Moore, and Lehmen, members of the line, were especially effective in plugging holes where they occurred, thus making the work of the backs easier.

K. Cruse, R. Leslie, W. Sandler, Mr. M. Decker, Coach Gibson, Coach Stelmack, J. Corney, D. Kreig.

SENIORS AND COACHES

Five seniors were on the roster of this year's football team, although the line-up consisted largely of underclassmen. The contribution made by the seniors was, however, an important one.

Sam Kreig, fullback, has been one of Mansfield's most outstanding football players. Despite several injuries, he played with energy and enthusiasm in every game this year.

Bob Leslie, end, played a very steady game and was especially adept at blocking. He was always an offensive threat because of his skill at catching passes.

Joe Corney, guard, made this year's starting line-up despite a year's absence from college. His fine playing helped to strengthen the over-all position of the Mansfield team.

Bill Sandler, tackle, returned this season to an active role in football. He had quite a share in the team's success.

Ken Cruse, tackle, was out of football for a year, but nevertheless he was a strong member of the 1957 squad. His playing was notable on both offense and defense.

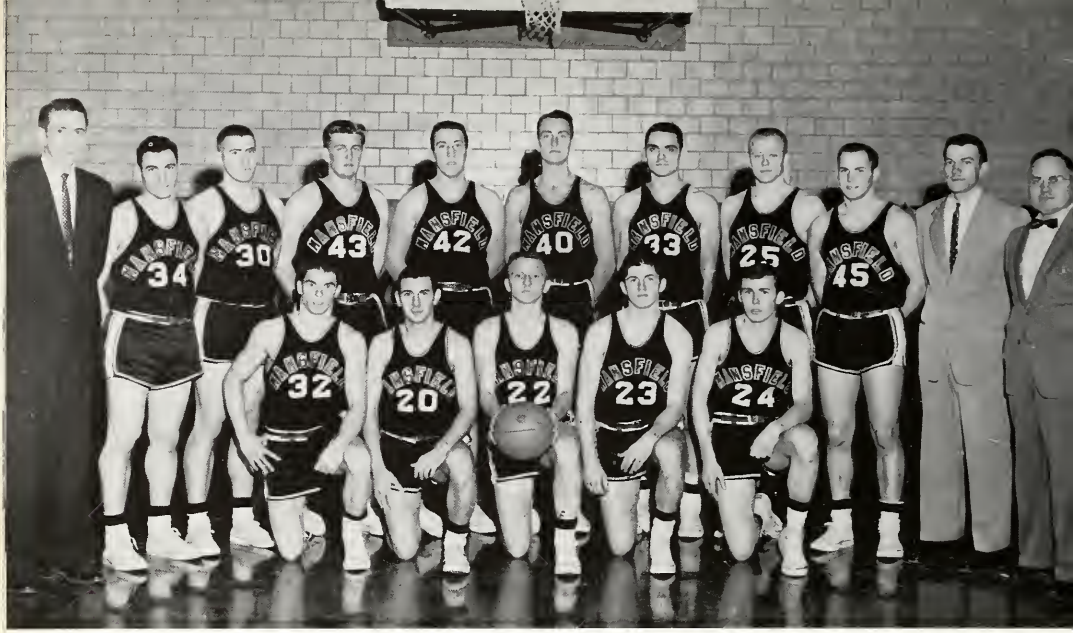
IN THE SPORTS ARENA

"Magic Moment"

We'll get the ball from you!

Gary Enderle tips the ball toward Mansfield's side of the court.



First row: L. Biddle, H. Hansen, R. Firestone, M. Gamble, R. Felt. Second row: Coach Gibson, V. Siracuse, P. Hvizdzak, G. Moore, J. Martini, G. Enderle, A. Zyga, J. Peterson, C. White, J. Starzec, Manager, Coach Stelmack.

BASKETBALL

The MSTC basketball team had won eight games and lost eight in its 1957-1958 schedule at the time that the CARONTAWAN went to press. The team displayed considerable ability on the floor.

Two freshman players, Bob Felt and Joe Martini, added a much needed scoring punch to the game. The Mountaineers had capable rebounders in Al Zyga, Jon Peterson, Gary Enderle, and Gib Moore. The men in the back court—Ron Firestone, Paul Hvizdzak, Mike Gamble, and Hal Hansen—proved skillful in passing.

This year's team was a young one, for only three seniors were in active play. With a continuing potential of five players for the years ahead, Mansfield's basketball future appears bright.

1956-1957 BASEBALL

William Gibson was the coach of the Mansfield baseball team for the first time during its 1956-1957 season. Out of the seven games played the team won two and lost five.

Mansfield achieved a hitting average of .248 for the season, a good figure for college baseball. The team, hampered by a lack of early spring practice, demonstrated potential power.

Sparkle and enthusiasm were added to the competitive sports, football and basketball, by our cheerleaders. Prior to many of the games, the squad aroused spirit in the players, coaches and fans by their pep rallies. Their vim, vigor, and vitality were evident throughout all of the games.

With the guidance of Mrs. Helen Lutes, the cheerleaders undergo a rigorous practice schedule each season. They aim to develop routines that represent and uphold the ideals of the school.

First row: D. Hufnagel, C. Downer, J. Nicolaisen. Second row: J. Schutt, J. Edgar, J. Warner. Third row: R. Firestone, K. Waltz, W. Thompson.

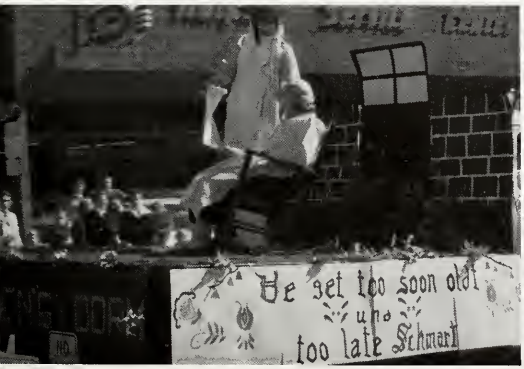
DURING HOMECOMING

HOMECOMING QUEEN
Mary Lou Downey

Miss Margie Drissel, the 1956 queen, crowns Miss Mary Lou Downey, the new Football queen, as Bob Rupar, member of the Homecoming Committee, watches.

Bill Maroney, chairman of the Newman Club float committee, and Mel Woodward, president of Sigma Zeta, accept first prizes for their floats.

Kim Wilson and Ellen Weigle, two of the Homecoming Queen's Court, ride to the Coronation in style.



The Women's Dormitory float glides down Main Street during the parade.

Band members seen entranced in a trick play.

The reserves of the M.S.T.C. football team cheer their fellow players.

Carol Davis and Teddy Quiepo, driven to the football game by Guy Kline, smile for the cameraman.

RENAISSANCE SINGERS

The Renaissance Singers—two sopranos, two altos, two tenors, and two basses—specialize in Renaissance chamber music. Directed by Miss Clarissa Randall, this group sings at college programs and visits area music clubs and schools.

FRESHMAN CHORUS

Freshman students with special musical ability are members of the Freshman Chorus, advised by Mr. Charles Fowler. This year, the group gave a Christmas program in North Hall and combined with the Advanced Chorus for a festival concert in April.

Directed by Mr. Eugene Jones, the Advanced Chorus performs both classical and contemporary choral music. In addition to singing for Vesper Services and an assembly, the chorus participated in a special spring concert lead by Dr. Ifor Jones.

ADVANCED CHORUS

ORGANIZATIONS

WOODWIND QUINTET

The horn, bassoon, oboe, clarinet, and flute are featured by the Woodwind Quintet, directed by Dr. Benjamin Husted. This quintet performs at an annual assembly, promenade recitals, and various music clubs.

COMMUNITY ORCHESTRA

Selected college students, high school students, and adult musicians are members of the Mansfield Community Symphony Orchestra conducted by Mr. Harold Brown. Now in its ninth season, the orchestra presents assembly programs and Sunday evening concerts.

The Concert Wind Ensemble is led by Mr. Mertram Francis. Among its activities this year have been the concert for "A Day at College" and a tour of Susquehanna Valley schools.

CONCERT WIND ENSEMBLE

IN THE YULETIDE

Bob, Carl, Pete, Ed, and Bill peek out of the window hoping to see Santa Claus.

The Christmas Committee: Ellen Weigle, Bob Keenan, Jessie Ruvo . . . They made Mansfield's Christmas merrier.

What's wrong, Emily? Don't you like the carol the Carontawan staff is singing?

SCA carolers bring Christmas greetings to the patients at Blossburg Hospital.

SEASON

Jim Powell is applying make up before appearing in "Amahl and the Night Visitors." With him are other members of Opera Workshop.

Santa rides in a Jaguar to the top of South Hall. No old fashioned reindeer for Mansfield's Mr. Claus!

Christmas Belles in 404
Marilyn and Mary Jo.

What seems so interesting on the other side of the men's Dorm Lounge? Only Sandra noticed the camera.

Mike has three guests for open house at South Hall: Charlie, Dottie, and, of course, Santa Claus.

"The Little Match Stick Girl of Fourth Floor"—first prize in the well judging contest of North Hall.

Second Floor's "Christmas Around the World."

Santa beckons to Ginger, who politely ignores him.

CONTINUING

Hurry, we'll miss Santa's sleigh, Bill!

Christmas beaux and belles.

We'll start our diet AFTER Christmas.

And the CARONTAWAN staff can sing, too.

ON YOUR FEET

Freshmen stand waiting for "line-up."

Sandie, Sylvia, Shirley, and Lin stand with friends on the arcade.

Marching Band stands in formation across the field.

Paul stands . . . well, I guess he gave out! Ber and another friend sympathize.

The staff and students of Mansfield have to eat, and they do. Thanks to Mrs. Mary Olver, Mrs. Christine Knowlton, Mrs. Thelma Roupp, Mrs. Irene Stickler, Mrs. Ina Hager, and Mrs. Nancy Lewis.

Jim Grove and Mrs. Jean M. Swanson take inventory of the books in the Campus Book Room.

Mrs. Agnes Schutt and Mrs. Jennie Crooks, dietitian and hostess of the Dining Room.

FOR THE ADMINISTRATION STAFF

Mrs. Lutes teaches a group of sophomore girls how to play basketball in Phys. Ed. class.

Two future Mansfield students make an appraisal of the newly redecorated Student Center.

Ruth and Mary Ann learn to bowl, another feature of Mrs. Lutes' gym class.

Bob Leslie teaches history to his students "on the hill."

Mrs. Helen Lutes teaches Kay, Beth, Marybelle and Ruth how to score bowling in Student Center bowling alleys.

AT THE S.C.

Do-Si-Do on your corners, boys.

Paul, Dick, Gib, and Mike, all amateur painters at heart, put their varied talents to work to improve the Student Center.

Marietta, as hostess for Day Student Open House, pours hot chocolate for Danice and Dale.

"Please have another cookie, Dr. Swan," urges Miss Jackson.

AT SMYTHE PARK

Nancy Miller leads the band.

"... And the band played on."

Bob, Emily, and Paul sell Bill hot coffee at a cold football game.

Co-Captains Biddle and Kreig meet the captains of the Ithaca team.

Jo warms up the fans to cheer the team on.

IN LEISURE TIME

Grace and her prince, alias Marilyn and Pete.

Indian wrestling between Mountaineers, Marylyn and Gary.

Three feet apart in North Hall, Ellen and John!

"But, JoAnn," argues Fire, "Mr. Gibson won't care."

Stairway to Heaven.

The girls on fourth floor sing "Jingle Bells" during the Christmas well party.

Barb seems surprised at finding a moth hole in her band uniform. Evelyn checks just to be sure.

Mrs. Crooks and Mrs. Schutt have a full time job in North Hall planning menus to keep the students full and contented.

North Hall is also that place where much money is spent.

IN NORTH

North Hall holds another fire drill.

Lois, Jean, Carol, and Chris serenade during a party held in the lounge.

And we, the girls on the north end of third floor, remember the night the lights were burned out.

North Hall's dining room is the scene of many banquets, including this one held for the faculty.

HALL

IN SOUTH

What will Betty, Marcia, and Johanna see, looking into Dick Sunderlin's room?

Mirror, mirror on the wall . . .

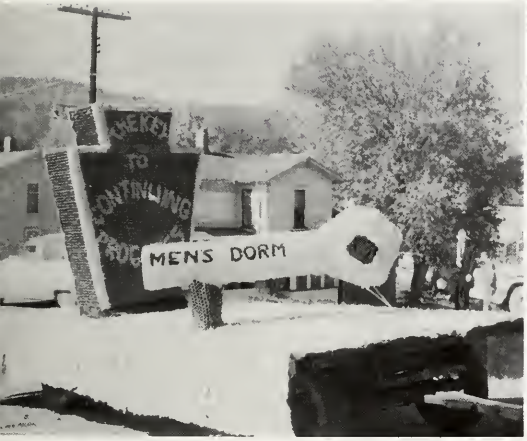
Billy's first?

Oh, Mel, that was a good one!

Cool cat, Bob, from Scranton, cuts a new rug with Lois . . .

HALL

Mrs. Maneval keeps the men's dormitory spotless.



South Hall's float in the annual Homecoming Day parade.

Bob, is it psychology or Audrey that you're concentrating on?

. . . Betty, Mary, Ken, and JoAnne watch the dance.

Wake up, little Bobbie!

Among the many who had Asiatic Flu was Paul Malakin, wrapped up in a blanket in the infirmary.

Phi Sigma Pi's initiation—Bob, Jack and Ron yield to Ed. All hail the master!

What's wrong, Carol? Did something go wrong?

WITH THE MISCEL

Carole, Em, and Ev work on their projects for the Art Workshop. They painted the Student Center, but not intentionally.

Ah, come on, Mel. Don't look so disgusted. Lenore certainly isn't.

Diana and Phyllis under the oak tree! (?)

PANTOMIME CIRCUS STARS, Freddy Albeck and Lotte Goslar, pose for a publicity picture.

LANEOUS — WE END!

Little studying but much gossip and rest for day students Jane, Jim, and Bob.

Some of us can, some of us can't (at one of North Hall's well-sings).

"Thank you," beams Jerry Kiely, as he accepts the blue ribbon for the Freshman class from Tony Strepcewski, M.C. of the Grecian Sing.
